

EASY	Q: The modern form of what sanity-preserving baby item was developed in 1901 by Christian W. Meinecke? A: The pacifier.	MEDIUM	Q: What 2007 comedy is about an unlikely couple dealing with an unexpected pregnancy? A: Knocked Up.
EASY	Q: What condition, also known as momnesia, is known to cause women to become forgetful during or soon after pregnancy? A: Baby brain.	MEDIUM	Q: About how many diapers does the average baby go through in their first year: 500, 1000, 1500, or 2500? A: 2500!
EASY	Q: According to a legend of Ancient Rome, what two figures were suckled by a she-wolf as infants? A: Romulus and Remus.	MEDIUM	Q: Before growing up to become a mystery novelist, Ann Turner Cook was the model for the original what? A: Gerber Baby.
EASY	Q: In what Disney classic is the titular character shown being delivered by the Stork? A: Dumbo.	MEDIUM	Q: What common skin condition causes white or yellow scales on a baby's scalp? A: Cradle cap.
EASY	Q: Roughly what percentage of babies are born on their due date: 5%, 10%, 15%, or 20%? A: 5%.	MEDIUM	Q: The creepy "Dancing Baby" of the 1990s was an early example of what? A: A viral video.
EASY	Q: According to an English legend, a woman who lived in a yew tree inspired what lullaby? A: Rock-a-bye Baby.	HARD	Q: What was the most popular baby boy's name of 1900: Oliver, John, George, or Jethro? A: John.
EASY	Q: An early version of what product was marketed as "Destroyable Babies Napkins"? A: Disposable diapers.	HARD	Q: What was the most popular baby girl's name of 1900 : Sophia, Petunia, Helen, or Mary? A: Mary.
EASY	Q: Lanugo refers to what feature that often covers the bodies and limbs of newborn babies? A: Hair.	HARD	Q: What's the name for a mother's first form of breastmilk, which is informally known as "liquid gold"? A: Colostrum.
EASY	Q: In what classic 1968 movie is a mother horrified to see that her newborn baby has his father's eyes? A: Rosemary's Baby.	HARD	Q: Roughly what percentage of people end up with outie belly buttons: 10%, 20%, 30%, or 40%? A: 10%.
EASY	Q: Wet nurses became a lot less common after the invention of what in the late 19th Century? A: Formula.	HARD	Q: What is Baby Yoda's real name? A: Grogu.
EASY	Q: What's the name of the scheming baby in the animated series Family Guy? A: Stewie.	HARD	Q: What has the "bell and pad" alarm been used for ever since the 1930s? A: Potty training.
MEDIUM	Q: How many baby teeth does a child get: 20, 24, 28, or 32? A: 20.	HARD	Q: In a major medical breakthrough, the first one of these was born in Britain in 1978. A: Test tube baby.
MEDIUM	Q: What land mammals have the longest pregnancies? A: Elephants (18-22 months).	HARD	Q: What is the fontanelle? Hint: The answer isn't hard. A: The soft spot on the baby's head.